Mayor Healy & Santa Claus to Present Toys to Needy Jersey City Children

Jersey City – Mayor Jerramiah T. Healy, members of the Municipal Council, and the Mayor’s Action Bureau will be presenting toys to children during the 12th Annual Toy Drive on Thursday, December 11, 2008 from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. at City Hall, 280 Grove Street.

The Mayor’s Annual Toy Drive is organized by the Mayor’s Action Bureau, who will distribute toys this year to children of underprivileged families in Jersey City who have pre-registered for the toy distribution. Over the course of the past twelve years, the Mayor’s Action Bureau has collected and handed out thousands of toys to children throughout the city.

“There is always an outpouring of generosity and support from the residents and the corporate community for the children of Jersey City,” said Mayor Healy. “But especially this year in these tough economic times we have seen everyone really go above and beyond.”

This years contributors include: The Jerramiah T. Healy Charitable Foundation, Citco, BJ’s, the LeFrak Organization, Lowell Harwood, St. Joseph’s School for the Blind, Hauptman Carpet, Provident Bank, Family Medical, Puccini’s Restaurant, Casino in the Park, Hy-Way Auto Body, Lincoln Inn Restaurant, Plumbers Union Local No. 14, Newport Centre Mall, Laidlaw Auto Body and dozens of Jersey City residents.

All media inquires should be directed to Jennifer Morrill, Press Secretary to Mayor Jerramiah T. Healy, at 201-547-4836 or 201-376-0699.
